SALT LAKE CITY'S BEAUTIFUL CANYON RESORT.

No so grand, but so beautiful are the works of nature at the resort, but if you wish grand scenery, climb to the peaks on either side of the resort, and view the grand and glorious scene that of the New World's Palestine. Even the sea of the late Col. E. Donnan would be inadequate to describe it. Come and view the beautiful scenery and breathe the pure ozone charged air, and drink the clear cold water that flows in crystal streams from the snow-capped mountain peaks, and sleep where the nights are cool, fresh and invigorating. You can cure that tired feeling at the

JONES'S BODY IN SIMPLE VAULT

Naval Expedition Task Is Complete.

Remains Taken From Brooklyn to Temporary Resting Place.

Imposing Cortege of Marines and Jackies, French Nation Participating in Ceremonies.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 24.—In a simple brick vault in the grounds of the Naval academy today lie the remains of John Paul Jones. With the simple ceremony attending the landing of the body from the cruiser Brooklyn, the naval expedition authorized to accomplish its transfer from the Paris cemetery which had been its place of repose for more than a century, is completed. The formal national reception of the body with appropriate exercises is reserved until it shall be placed in the splendid naval chapel now being erected near the site of the temporary vault.

Removal of Body.

The work today consisted of the removal of the body from the Brooklyn to the naval tug Standish, and from that to a float moored to the shore, where stalwart jackies placed it in a hearse which was escorted by an imposing cortege of marines, jackies and midshipmen. In which the French nation participated with a landing party of officers and men from the French cruiser Juren de La Graviere.

At 8 o'clock, just as a thunder-shower had spent its fury, the guns of the Brooklyn boomed a salute to Rear-Admiral Sands, superintendent of the Naval academy.

Saluting Batteries Busy.

The shore batteries replied, and as they did so the naval tug Standish, in command of Lieut. Wiley, cast off and proceeded to the Brooklyn, lying five miles off. The saluting batteries were kept busy as the French cruiser followed the Brooklyn's shore salute with a similar one, the shore again making answer. The French cruiser then saluted Rear-Admiral Sigbee and received a return. Then Rear-Admiral Davis, commanding the four battleships which lay in line opposite the four cruisers of the expedition fleet, saluted Rear-Admiral Sigbee and received a reply.

Jackies Handle Remains.

The Standish came alongside and made fast to the Brooklyn shortly before 9 o'clock. The body of the dead Admiral was hoisted from its position on the half deck by a boat crane, carried to the starboard side, where another crane lowered it to the after deck of the tug. Sixteen jackies went over to the side of the Brooklyn and placed the coffin on a catwalk, after which it was covered by the flag of Gen. Porter, over which was spread the Union Jack. Then the jackies stood at attention in a square around the bier.

His Own Sword on Coffin.

The unsheathed sword of John Paul Jones, now the property of Commander Nicholson of the cruiser Tacoma, was laid on the coffin under constant guard of a marine. Rear-Admiral Sigbee and his ship officers came aboard the tug and the start for the shore was begun. The tug took its course down between the two columns of cruisers and battleships and as it was making this run, minute guns from every ship gave the fifteen-gun salute.

Form Imposing Guard.

As the body was being transferred the marines of the squadron constituting one battalion and two battalions of jackies were sent ashore in small boats towed by launches. These reached shore first and formed an imposing guard drawn up in double line on the seawall of the basin of the Naval academy. The Standish landed at a barge over which an arch of American and French flags had been designed. She touched shore at exactly 10 o'clock and thirteen minutes later the body was ashore.

Hearse in Waiting.

A hearse drawn by four black horses was in waiting, on either side of which were the honorary pall-bearers, on the right side being Rear-Admiral Sands and Capt. Tilley and Reader of Admiral Sigbee's fleet, on the left was Capt. Goris of the French cruiser, and Rear-Admiral Davis and Capt. Tausig.

The body was then taken to the vault, where it was placed with a simple service.

PATRICK GETS A STAY

Execution of Convicted Murderer Is Again Delayed.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Justice O'Brien of the Court of Appeals has granted an order staying the execution of Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, convicted of the murder of William M. Rice, the aged Texas millionaire, in this city, pending the hearing and determination of the argument upon the motion for a reargument of his case. The time for the reargument has been fixed for October 2 next.

The application for a stay of execution was granted on the contention of David B. Hill, counsel for the condemned man, that important points have been overlooked by a majority of the court in affirming the judgment of conviction. A copy of the papers in the motion for the stay together with a copy of the order of Justice O'Brien, was served on District Attorney Jerome today.

Wetmore Undergoes Operation.

NEW YORK, July 24.—United States Senator George Peabody Wetmore of Rhode Island, who came to this city a few days ago for the purpose of undergoing a surgical operation, is stated to be convalescent. He expects to return in a few days to his home in Newport. Mr. Wetmore said last night that in 1883, while driving in Newport, he was thrown to the roadway and sustained a fracture of the rib and the upper arm, which was complicated by a dislocation of the shoulder. The difficulty of setting the bone and later of reducing the dislocation caused him pain at times and made the present operation necessary.
